For its Eighth Edition, Zip Zone Events returns to Milan Design Week 2025, an unmissable event for those eager to discover the best in independent design within a vibrant and inspiring atmosphere. Here, ideas take shape, trends are anticipated, and creativity transforms into a tangible experience. More than just an exhibition, Zip Zone Events is an immersive journey into the future of contemporary design, reaffirming itself as a key platform for independent designers, emerging brands, and outstanding craftsmanship. A unique exhibition space in the heart of the design district of Via Tortona, where visitors can explore innovation, creativity, and new trends.

A Preview of the Exhibitors :

- Celsius Panel – A modern, efficient, and sustainable heating system featuring long-wave infrared radiant panels. Elegant design, uniform comfort, and easy installation without construction work.
- French Design Award – Established in France by the International Award Association (IAA), the French Design Award provides a global platform for designers to showcase innovation and excellence. Judged by world-renowned experts, it attracts top-tier brands such as Mercedes-Benz, Baidu, and China Mobile, celebrating the best in design. Winning this award enhances international recognition and prestige for both designers and brands. The French Design Award will showcase a selection of innovative design objects.
- Letshelter – An Italian startup that creates uniquely designed ceramic hooks.
- Innbamboo® the Original – Bamboo and sustainable fiber accessories, 100% made in Italy, featuring specially designed packaging.
- Peperina Beauty – A beauty care brand that combines captivating design, research, and sustainability, offering effective and environmentally friendly products.
- NerokrenDesign – Contemporary jewellery inspired by architecture and design, blending experimentation with innovative materials.
- Aldo Scotti Art – Handmade artworks inspired by Native American culture, spirituality, nature, and spirit animals.
- Desco Via Margutta, the line created by architect Alessandro Palladino. Handcrafted, customizable mini kitchens, perfect for any environment: studios, lofts, B&Bs, offices, and much more!
- Cherry Blossom, a company specialized in green design, vertical gardens, and stabilized and permanent plants and flowers, is a point of reference for floral arrangements and original set designs for both indoor and outdoor spaces.
